- Mr. Ballesteros discusses the AB955 bill. People have misinterpreted this information. The fees are not going up in the summer. Senator Ogden also adds that it will only be the classes that are impacted if it does go through. He announces that they are looking for a student for the Citizens Bond oversees committee. How money is being spent and moved. They need someone in place by May 5th, 2014 to sit down and decide on meeting times. There are applications for this position

XII. Committee Reports

Committee Reports
Activities: Casey Bess
Club Funding: Jeniece Cordova
Election: Latifah Alexander	Decided to move forward but yesterday we decided redo election week only, since there were no violations or objects of the actions of the committee prior to election week. It is scheduled from April 28th to May 1st at the Main Campus. As of right now the dates for the satellite campuses are tentative. We will have a special meeting on the 10th at 11am in 1421. We will discuss the election budget, promotion, and incentives for voting. We highly encourage all of you to promote in your classes this week and the week after next.
Political Activities: Charlene Alimboyao

Procedural Review: Naser Baig	Garcia asks what they will be doing on the changing board policy. The PRC was unable to meet prior to the April 2nd Board of Trustee meeting, but some of us met up for pancakes at the IHOP in Fairfield on Sunday, March 30. Director Dr. Jose Ballesteros also came by on Sunday evening, and I wanted to state on the record how grateful I am that he took the time to drive down from Sacramento for us on the weekend. The PRC will be meeting this week on Thursday, and among the items on the agenda is impeachment charges brought up at a previous Senate meeting.
Student Riders: Geff Freire	Student Riders Meeting #4 will be this Friday at 11:30am - 12:30pm. Under my command, SRC will be split into two parts: Construction Section which will work on the fee and the transportation plans; and Promotion Section will be on advertising the committee out to the Student Body. A new survey will be released to bring the obtain the statistical data that was requested by the senate awhile back.
Technus: Geff Freire	Technus Meeting #3 will be on Thursday @ 1:30pm - 2:30pm. The last meeting was more successful and I got 3 members of the public to attend. The main topic that was brought up was Library Technologies and Student ID Card Upgrades; and they showed interest in the revival of the A+ and Computer Forensics Programs. Just as ASSC will be fight for getting BP 1009 reverted back to normal, Technus will be fighting to change BP 2067.

Governing Board	Naser Baig	President Johnson entertained a motion to extend the discussion by three minutes. Jaramillo moved to extend the time by three minutes, seconded by Senator Bess, Motion passes Associate 2, 0 Senators 8, 0 Nick Battiste got many signatures for the petition. The Board of Trustees passed the amendments unanimously so that the students cannot appoint a student trustee. His proposal is to modify the election code. Senator Ogden adds that we might have revised our constitution to parallel with the Governing Board. Senator Baig moved that we hear Senator Garcia's statement, seconded by Senator Ogden. Associates 1, 0, 1 Senators 5, 2, 1 Senator Garcia finds there to be no justification. At the Board meeting on April 2, faculty staged a protest during public comment on low wages, comparing their incomes with standards across the state. Several faculty members stated that they had started teaching at other colleges to supplement their income. During my report, I protested the implementation of changes to the series 1000 board policies, in particular BP 1009. I cited a chronology of minutes from the Board of Trustees, the ASSC, and the Shared Governance Council which seemed to demonstrate that passing the amended BP1009 would be inappropriate as we were unable to verify that it had gone through shared governance. Senators Casey Bess and Luis Garcia both also gave compelling speeches. Well, Luis did anyway. The ASSC was also able to raise 183 signatures from students protesting the amendments presented by the Board of Trustees. It should be noted that the vast majority of the signatures were the direct efforts of Associate Nick Battiste and from our vocational and

		career technical students. The Board of Trustees passed the amendments unanimously, with the lone dissent coming from our Student Trustee.”

XIV. Executive Board Reports

Executives
President	Gabriel Johnson
Vice-President	Jeniece Cordova
Legislative Advocate	Charlene Alimboyao
Student Trustee	Latifah Alexander	Senator Baig adds that one of the challenges of 13 B was that it didn't go through shared governance. He will get feedback on this later this week. Attended the board of trustee meeting last week. There was another board dinner, this time with the unions. They also passed item 13b. This now means that if the Student Trustee position becomes vacant before the end of their term, the student body association will have to hold a special election within 30 days after the position is vacated. They didn't have any good reason to approve it, which is why I voted no. I attended a CCCAST via phone conference on Friday afternoon. We seated a trustee for the Director of Marketing on the executive board of CCCAST. The next CCCAST meeting will be during the General Assembly next month."
