

SOLANO COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

RESEARCH AND PUBLICATION BY FACULTY

4470

POLICY: The writing of articles and books is a type of professional activity which the Governing Board wishes to encourage; however, since instruction is the primary responsibility of the faculty of a community college, remuneration shall not be made for such activities.

The administration may permit the use of District equipment and facilities by those faculty members conducting research on other than College time. Use of such equipment and facilities must not interfere with their use for instructional purposes, nor may the use constitute an expense to the District.
