SOLANO COMMUNITY COLLEGE TO FILL MEASURE G CITIZENS' BOND OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE VACANCY

FAIRFIELD, CA, MAY 10, 2012: Solano Community College's Measure G Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee (CBOC) is seeking one (1) member to fill one vacant seat on the committee. The CBOC is an independent citizens' committee comprised of nine members representing a broad cross-section of the College's service region as outlined in the committee's bylaws, and its members are appointed by the District's Governing Board. The committee meets quarterly to review the progress of the projects funded by Measure G.

The committee is charged with reviewing the expenditures from the bond funds to ensure they meet the Proposition 39 mandates and the language of Measure G. The CBOC also issues an annual report to the public on Measure G bond expenditures.

The CBOC is looking for a member who lives in the Solano College service areas which include: Vallejo, Benicia, Fairfield, Suisun, Dixon, and Vacaville in Solano County and the city of Winters in Yolo County. The District seeks a citizen representing a business organization, and the membership term is two years. Appointees cannot be employees, vendors, or contractors of the District.

Applications will be accepted until the vacancy is filled and may be obtained by calling the Solano Community College Office of Finance & Administration, 707.864.7209.

About Solano Community College:

The College has been an icon in the county since 1945 when it started as Vallejo Junior College. In the early 1970s, the College moved to its present Fairfield site. The College serves over 12,000 students every semester and over 20,000 over the academic year. In addition to the campus in Fairfield, the College has two Centers at Vallejo and Vacaville, and offers courses at Travis Air Force Base. The College operates a School of Aeronautics at the Nut Tree Airport. The College offers Associate Degrees and Certificates in various disciplines and provides training in several trades. For more information, please visit us at www.solano.edu.
